(Genesis 1:26-28, 31a)

A reading from the Book of Genesis:

Then God said:

“Let us make man in our image, after our likeness.
Let them have dominion over the fish of the sea,
and birds of the air, and the cattle,
and over all the wild animals
and all the creatures that crawl on the ground.”

God created man in his image;
in the image of God he created him;
male and female he created them.

God blessed them, saying:

“Be fertile and multiple;
fill the earth and subdue it.
Have dominion over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air,
and all the living things that move on the earth.”
God looked at everything he had made,
and he found it very good.

(Genesis 2:18-24)

A reading from the Book of Genesis:

The Lord God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone.
I will make a suitable partner for him."
So the Lord God formed out of the ground
various wild animals and various birds of the air,
and he brought them to the man to see what he would call them;
whatever the man called each of them would be its name.

The man gave names to all the cattle,
all the birds of the air, and all wild animals;
but none proved to be the suitable partner for the man.

So the Lord God cast a deep sleep on the man,
and while he was asleep,
he took out one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh.
The Lord God then built up into a woman the rib
That he had taken from the man.

When he brought her to the man, the man said:
"This one, at last, is bone of my bones
and flesh of my flesh;
This one shall be called 'woman,'
for out of 'her man' this one has been taken."

That is why a man leaves his father and mother
and clings to his wife,
and the two of them become one body.

A reading from the Book of Genesis:

The servant of Abraham said to Laban: “I bowed down in worship to the Lord, blessing the Lord the God of my master Abraham, who had let me to the right road to obtain the daughter of my master’s kinsman for his son. If, therefore, you have in mind to show true loyalty to my master, let me know; but if not, let me, know that, too. I can then proceed accordingly.”

Laban and his household said in reply: “This thing comes from the Lord; we can say nothing to you either for or against it. Here is Rebekah, ready for you; take her with you, that she may become the wife of your master’s son, as the Lord has said.”

So they called Rebekah and asked her, “Do you wish to go with this man?” She answered, “I do.” At this they allowed their sister Rebekah and her nurse to take leave, along with Abraham’s servant and his men. Invoking a blessing on Rebekah, they said:

“Sister, you may go into thousands of myriads; And may your descendants gain possession of the gates of their enemies!”

Then Rebekah and her maids started out; they mounted their camels and followed the man. So the servant took Rebekah and went on his way.

Meanwhile, Isaac had gone from Beer-lahai-roi and was living in the region of the Negeb. One day, toward evening, he went out ... in the field, and as he looked around, he noticed that camels were approaching. Rebekah, too, was looking about, and when she saw him, she alighted from her camel and asked the servant, “Who is the man out there, walking through the fields toward us?” “That is my master,” replied the servant. Then she covered herself with her veil.

The servant recounted to Isaac all the things he had done. Then Isaac took Rebekah into his tent; he married her, and thus she became his wife. In his love for her, Isaac found solace after the death of his mother Sarah.

A reading from the Book of Tobit:

Raphael and Tobiah entered the house of Raguel and greeted him. Raguel sprang up and kissed Tobiah, shedding tears of joy. But when he heard that Tobit had lost his eyesight, he was grieved and wept aloud. He said to Tobiah: “My child, God bless you! You are the son of a noble and good father. But what a terrible misfortune that such a righteous and charitable man should be afflicted with blindness!” He continued to weep in the arms of his kinsman Tobiah. His wife Edna also wept for Tobit; and even their daughter Sarah began to weep.

Afterward, Raguel slaughtered a ram from the flock and gave them a cordial reception. When they had bathed and reclined to eat, Tobiah said to Raphael, “Brother Azariah, ask Raguel to let me marry my kinswoman Sarah.” Raguel overheard the words; so he said to the boy: “Eat and drink and be merry tonight, for no man is more entitled to marry my daughter Sarah than you, brother. Besides, not even I have the right to give her to anyone but you, because you are my closest relative. But I will explain the situation to you very frankly. I have given her in marriage to seven men, all of whom were kinsmen of ours, and all died on the very night they approached her. But now, son, eat and drink. I am sure that Lord will look after you both.” Tobiah answered, “I will eat or drink nothing until you set aside what belongs to me.”

Raguel said to him: “I will do it. She is yours according to the decrees of the Book of Moses. Your marriage to her has been decided in heaven! Take your kinswoman; from now on you are her love, and she is your beloved. She is yours today and ever after. And tonight, son, may the Lord of heaven prosper you both. May he grant you mercy and peace.” Then Raguel called his daughter Sarah and she came to him. He took her by the hand and gave her to Tobiah with the words: “Take her according to the law. According to the decree written in the Book of Moses, she is your wife. Take her and bring her back safely to your father. And may the God of heaven grant both of you peace and prosperity.” He then called her mother and told her to bring a scroll, so that he might draw up a marriage contract stating that he gave Sarah to Tobiah as his wife according to the decree of the Mosaic law. Her mother brought the scroll and he drew up the contract, to which they affixed their seals.

Afterward they began to eat and drink.

A reading from the Book of Tobit:

On their wedding night, Tobiah arose from bed
and said to his wife, “Sister, get up. Let us pray and beg our Lord
to have mercy on us and to grant us deliverance.”
Sarah got up, and they started to pray
and be that deliverance might be theirs.
They began with these words:

“Blessed are you, O God of our fathers;
praised be your name forever and ever.
Let the heavens and all your creation
praise you forever.
You made Adam and you gave him his wife, Eve
to be his help and support;
and from those two the human race descended.
You said, ‘It is not good for the man to be alone;
let us make him a partner like himself.’
Now, Lord, you know that I take this wife of mine
not because of lust,
but for a noble purpose.
Call down your mercy to me and on her,
and allow us to live together to a happy old age.”

They said together, “Amen, amen.”

(Proverbs 31: 10-13, 19-20, 30-31)

A reading from the Book of Proverbs:

When one finds a worthy wife,
her value is far beyond pearls.
Her husband, entrusting his heart to her,
has an unfailing prize.
She brings him good, and not evil,
all the days of her life.
She obtains wool and flax
and makes cloth with skillful hands.
She puts her hands to the distaff,
and her fingers ply the spindle.
She reaches out her hands to the poor,
and extends her arms to the needy.
Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting;
the woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.
Give her a reward of her labors,
and let her works praise her at the city gates.

(Song of Songs 2:8-10, 14, 16a; 8:6-7a)

A reading from the Songs of Songs:

Hark! My love—here he comes springing across the mountains,
leaping across the hills.

My lover is like a gazelle or a young stag.

Here he stands behind our wall,

gazing through the windows,

peering through the lattices.

My love speaks; he says to me,

“Arise, my beloved, my dove, my beautiful one, and come!”

“O my dove in the clefts of the rock,

in the secret recesses of the cliff,

let me see you,

let me hear your voice,

for your voice is sweet,

and you are lovely.”

My lover belongs to me and I to him.

He says to me:

“Set me as a seal on your heart,

as a seal on your arm;

for stern as death is love,

relentless as the nether-world is devotion;

its flames are a blazing fire.

Deep waters cannot quench love,

nor floods sweep it away.

(Sirach 26:1-4; 13-16)

A reading from the Book of Sirach:

Blessed the husband of a good wife,
twice-lengthened are his days;
A worthy wife brings joy to her husband,
peaceful and full is his life.
A good wife is a generous gift,
bestowed upon him who fears the Lord;
Be he rich or poor, his heart is content,
and a smile is ever on his face.

A gracious wife delights her husband,
her thoughtfulness puts flesh on his bones;
A gift from the Lord is her governed speech,
and her firm virtue is of surpassing worth.
Choicest of blessings is a modest wife,
Priceless her chaste soul.
A holy and decent woman adds grace upon grace;
indeed, no price is worthy of her temperate soul.
Like the sun rising in the Lord's heavens,
the beauty of a virtuous wife is the radiance of her home.

(Jeremiah 31:31-32a; 33-34a)

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah:

The days are coming, says the Lord,
when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel
and the house of Judah.

It will not be like the covenant I made with their fathers:
the day I took them by the hand
to lead them forth from the land of Egypt.

But this is the covenant which I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord.
I will place my law within them, and write it upon their hearts;
I will be their God, and they shall be my people.
No longer will they have need to teach their friends and relatives how to know the Lord.
All, from least to greatest, shall know me, says the Lord.

(Romans 8:31b-35, 37-39)

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans:

Brothers and sisters:

If God is for us, who can be against us?

He did not spare his own Son

but handed him over for us all,

will he not also give us everything else along with him?

Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones?

It is God who acquits us.

Who will condemn?

It is Christ Jesus who died, rather, was raised,

who also is at the right hand of God,

who indeed intercedes for us.

What will separate us from the love of Christ?

Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine,

or nakedness, or peril, or the sword/

No, in all these things, we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us.

For I am convinced that neither death, nor life,

nor angels, nor principalities,

nor present things, nor future things,

nor powers, nor height, nor depth,

nor any other creature will be able to separate us

from the love of God in Christ Jesus, our Lord.

(Short Version: Romans 12:1-2, 9-13)

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans:
(Verses 1-2)

I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God,
to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice,
holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship.
Do not conform yourselves to this age,
but be transformed by the renewal of your mind,
that you may discern what is the will of God,
what is good and pleasing and perfect.

(Verses 9-13)

Let love be sincere;
hate what is evil, hold on to what is good;
love one another with mutual affection;
anticipate one another in showing honor.
Do not grow slack in zeal,
be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord.
Rejoice in hope, endure in affliction, persevere in prayer.
Contribute to the needs of the holy ones, exercise hospitality.

(Verses 14-18)

Bless those who persecute you, bless and do not curse them.
Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep.
Have the same regard for one another;
do not be haughty but associate with the lowly;
do not be wise in your own estimation.
Do not repay anyone evil for evil;
be concerned for what is noble in the sight of all.
If possible, on your part, live at peace with all.

(Romans 15:1b-3a, 5-7, 13)

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans:

Brothers and sisters:

We ought to put up with the failings of the weak and not to please ourselves;

let each of us please our neighbor for the good, for building up.

For Christ did not please himself.

May the God of endurance and encouragement grant you to think in harmony with one another, in keeping with Christ Jesus, that with one accord you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Welcome one another, then, as Christ welcomed you, for the glory of God.

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

(1 Corinthians 6:13c-15a, 17-20)

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians:

Brothers and sisters:

The body is not for immorality, but for the Lord,
and the Lord is for the body;
God raised the Lord and will also raise us by his power.

Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ?
Whoever is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him.
Avoid immorality.
Every other sin a person commits is outside the body,
but the immoral person sins against his own body.
Do you not know that your body
is a temple for the Holy Spirit within you.
Whom you have from God, and that you are not your own?
For you have been purchased at a price.
Therefore, glorify God in your body.

(1 Corinthians 12:31-13:8a)

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians:

Brothers and sisters:

Strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts.

But I shall show you a still more excellent way.

If I speak in human and angelic tongues, but do not have love,
I am a resounding gong or a clashing cymbal.

And if I have the gift of prophecy
and comprehend all mysteries and all knowledge;
if I have all faith so as to move mountains,
but do not have love, I am nothing.

If I give away everything I own,
and if I hand my body over so that I may boast,
but do not have love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient, love is kind.

It is not jealous, is not pompous,
it is not inflated, it is not rude,
it does not seek its own interests,
it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury,
it does not rejoice over wrongdoing
but rejoices with the truth.

It bears all things, believes all things,
hopes all things, endures all things.

Love never fails.

Long Version (Ephesians 5:2a, 21-33)

Short Version (Ephesians 5:2a, 25-32)

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians:

(Verse 2a)

Brothers and sisters:

Live in love, as Christ loved us and handed himself over for us.

(Verses 21-24)

Be subordinate to one another out of reverence for Christ.

Wives should be subordinate to their husbands as to the Lord.

For the husband is head of his wife

just as Christ is head of the Church,

he himself the savior of the body.

As the church is subordinate to Christ,

so wives should be subordinate to their husbands in everything.

(Verses 25-32)

Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ loved the Church and handed himself over for her to sanctify her,

cleansing her by the bath of water with the word,

that he might present to himself the Church in splendor,

without spot or wrinkle or any such thing,

that she might be holy and without blemish.

So also husbands should love their wives as their own bodies.

He who loves his wife loves himself.

For no one hates his own flesh,

but rather nourishes and cherishes it,

even as Christ does the Church,

because we are members of his body.

For this reason, a man should leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.

This is a great mystery,

But I speak in reference to Christ and the Church.

(Verse 33)

In any case, each one of you should love his wife as himself,
and the wife should respect her husband.

(Philippians 4: 4-9)

A reading from the letter of Saint Paul to the Philippians:

Brothers and sisters:

Rejoice in the Lord always.

I shall say it again: rejoice!

Your kindness should be known to all.

The Lord is near.

Have no anxiety at all, but in everything,
by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving,
make your requests known to God.

Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, brothers and sisters,
whatever is true, whatever is honorable,
whatever is just, whatever is pure,
whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious,
if there is any excellence
and if there is anything worthy of praise,
think about these things.

Keep on doing what you have learned and received
and heard and seen in me.
Then the God of peace will be with you.

(Colossians 3:12-17)

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians:

Brothers and sisters:

Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved,
heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility,
gentleness, and patience,
bearing with one another and forgiving one another,
if one has a grievance against another;
as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do.

And over all these put on love,
that is, the bond of perfection.

And let the peace of Christ control your hearts,
the peace into which you were also called in one Body.
And be thankful.

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly,
as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another,
singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs
with gratitude in your hearts to God.

And whatever you do, in word or in deed,
do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus,
giving thank to God the Father through him.

(Hebrews 13:1-4a, 5-6b)

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews:

Brothers and sisters:

Let mutual love continue.

Do not neglect hospitality,

for through it some have unknowingly entertained angels.

Be mindful of prisoners as if sharing their imprisonment,

and of the ill-treated as of yourselves,

and you also are in the body.

Let marriage be honored among all

and the marriage bed be kept undefiled.

Let your life be free from love of money

but be content with what you have,

for he has said, I will never forsake you or abandon you.

Thus we may say with confidence:

The Lord is my helper, and I will not be afraid.

(1 Peter 3:1-9)

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Peter:

Beloved:

You wives should be subordinate to your husbands so that, even if some disobey the word, they may be won over without a word by their wives' conduct when they observe your reverent and chaste behavior.

Your adornment should not be an external one:

braiding your hair, wearing gold jewelry, or dressing in fine clothes, but rather the hidden character of the heart, expressed in the imperishable beauty of a gentle and calm disposition, which is precious in the sight of God.

For this is also how the holy women who hoped in God once used to adore themselves and were subordinate to their husbands;

thus Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him "lord."

You are her children when you do what is good and fear no intimidation.

Likewise, you husbands should live with your wives in understanding, showing honor to the weaker female sex, since we are joint heirs of the gift of life, so that your prayers may not be hindered.

Finally, all of you, be of one mind, sympathetic,

Loving toward one another, compassionate humble.

Do not return evil for evil, or insult for insult;

but, on the contrary, a blessing, because of this you were called, that you might inherit a blessing.

The Word of the Lord.

(Thanks be to God)

(1 John 3:18-24)

A reading from the first Letter of Saint John:

Children, let us love not in word or speech,
but in deed and truth.

Now this is how we shall know that we belong to the truth
and reassure our hearts before him
in whatever our hearts condemn,
for God is greater than our hearts and knows everything.

Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us,
we have confidence in God
and receive from him whatever we ask,
because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him.

And his commandment is this:
we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ,
And love one another just as he commanded us.

Those who keep his commandments remain in him, and he in them,
and the way we know that he remains in us
is from the Spirit that he gave us.

The Word of the Lord.

(1 John 4:7-12)

A reading from the first Letter of Saint John:

Beloved, let us love one another,
because love is of God;
everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God.

Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love.
In this way, the love of God was revealed to us:
God sent his only-begotten Son into the world
so that we might have life through him.

In this is love:
not that we have loved God, but that he loved us
and sent his Son as expiation for our sins.

Beloved, if God so loved us,
we also must love one another.
No one has ever seen God.
Yet, if we love one another, God remains in us,
and his love is brought to perfection in us.

The Word of the Lord.                   (Thanks be to God)

+ A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew:

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain,
and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him.

He began to teach them, saying:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they who mourn,
for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the land.

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the clean of heart,
for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are they who are persecuted
for the sake of righteousness,
for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me.

Rejoice and be glad,
for your reward will be great in heaven.”

(Matthew 5:13-16)

+ A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew:

Jesus said to his disciples:

“You are the salt of the earth.

But if salt loses its taste, with what can it be seasoned?

It is no longer good for anything

but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot.

You are the light of the world.

A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden.

Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket;

it is set on a lamp stand,

where it gives light to all in the house.

Just so, your light must shine before others,

that they may see your good deeds

and glorify your heavenly Father.”

Long Version (Matthew 7:21, 24-29)
Short Version (Matthew 7:21, 24-25)

+ A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew:

(Verse 21)

Jesus said to his disciples:

“Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’
will enter the Kingdom of heaven,
but only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven.

(Verses 24-25)

“Everyone who listens to these words of mine and acts on them will be like a wise man who built his house on rock.
The rain fell, the floods came,
and the winds blew and buffeted the house.
But it did not collapse; it had been set solidly on rock.

(Verses 26-29)

And everyone who listens to these words of mine
but does not act on them
will be like a fool who built his house on sand.
The rain fell, the floods came,
and the winds blew and buffeted the house.
And it collapsed and was completely ruined.”

When Jesus finished these words,
the crowds were astonished at his teaching,
for he taught them as one having authority,
and not as their scribes.

For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother
and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh?

He said to him,
“You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart,
with all your soul, and with all your mind.

This is the greatest and the first commandment.

The second is like it:
You all love your neighbor as yourself.

+ A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John:

There was a wedding in Cana in Galilee,
and the mother of Jesus was there.
Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding.
When the wine ran short,
the mother of Jesus said to him,
“They have no wine.”
And Jesus said to her,
“Woman, how does your concern affect me?
My hour has not yet come.”

His mother said to the servers,
“Do whatever he tells you.”
Now there were six stone water jars there
for Jewish ceremonial washings,
each holding twenty to thirty gallons.

Jesus told them,
“Fill the jars with water.”
So, they filled them to the rim.
Then he told them,
“Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter.”
So they took it.
And when the headwaiter tasted the water
that had become wine,
without knowing where it came from

(although the servants who had drawn the water knew),
the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, “Everyone serves good wine first,
and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one;
but you have kept the good wine until now.”

Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs
in Cana in Galilee
and so revealed his glory.
and his disciples began to believe in him.

(Verses 20-23)

Jesus raised his eyes to heaven and said:

Priest: Now that we have heard God's word in the Bible and experienced the Lord's presence in this exchange of vows, let us present these prayerful petitions for people in the world today.

Recited by the couple, a parent, relative, friend or priest/deacon:

1. For our Holy Father on earth, the Pope, all the bishops and the clergy everywhere, that they may lead us to deeper faith in God and a stronger love for others, let us pray to the Lord.
2. For our President and all leaders of government, that they may be effective in achieving peace and eliminating poverty, let us pray to the Lord.
3. For married persons that they may continue to give, be able to forgive, and deepen in happiness with the passing of each day, let us pray to the Lord.
4. For ___ and ___, now beginning their life together, that they may have divine assistance at every moment, and constant support of friends, the rich blessing of children, a warm love reaching out to others, and good health until a ripe old age, let us pray to the Lord.
5. For those who are sick, lonely, discouraged, or that they may be strengthened by God's help and aided by their friends, let us pray to the Lord.
6. For those who have died, especially the relatives and friends of ___ and ___, and of all present for this wedding, that they may enjoy perfect happiness and total fulfillment in eternal life, let us pray to the Lord.
7. And for those needs which we now offer in the silence of our hearts (pause), let us pray to the Lord.

Priest: O ever-living and caring God, Jesus taught us to ask, to seek, and to knock. We have just done so, confident that you will now look upon our many needs, consider our trusting faith, and in your great love grant these requests which we present to you through Jesus Christ, our Lord. (Amen)

J2

Priest: We have listened to the Word of God. Let us now ask God to listen to us, to bless our words of prayer, which we offer for the people of the world..

Recited by the couple, a parent, relative or friend:

1. For leaders of the Church and state,
for heads of institutions,
for heads of homes and households,
that they will lead us and guide us
in the search for God and the good life,
in the search for peace and joy,
in the search for love among us—
Let us pray to the Lord.
2. For all married people:
especially for this new couple, ____ and ____,
that they may savor
the joy of being together,
warm love, and children,
a long life and friends,
and a new day, every day—
Let us pray to the Lord.
3. For the lonely, old and young,
for the hungry rich,
and the hungry poor,
for the sick in body, mind, and spirit,
for the weakness in all of us—
Let us pray to the Lord.
4. For our relatives and friends who walk with us on life's journey
and for those who have gone before us,
marked in the sign of faith,
to the other side of life.
For the fulfillment of all their unfulfilled desires—
Let us pray to the Lord.

Priest: These are our words of prayer today
for ourselves and all human beings.
Tomorrow there will be others
Lord God, the beloved of mankind
who has first loved us,
give our words by your listening
the power of your word
so that all things may be accomplished
sweetly and gently for the happiness of all.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

(Amen)

J3

Priest: God has given us promises in the word of scripture. ____ (bride) and ____ (groom) have given their promises to each other in their marriage. This hour of promises is also a time of prayer. We turn to God our Father and make our response by saying: “Lord hear our prayer”.

Recited by the couple, a parent, relative or friend:

For our Church, to keep the promise of salvation, we pray to the Lord.

For our world, to keep the promise of peace, we pray to the Lord.

For our country, to keep the promise of freedom, we pray to the Lord.

For our parish, to keep the promise of discipleship, we pray to the Lord.

For our hearts, to keep the promise of loving, we pray to the Lord.

For our lives, to keep the promise of growing, we pray to the Lord.

For this couple, to keep the promise of marriage, we pray to the Lord.

Priest: Father, you have chosen us and given us your love, the power of the Holy Spirit in our midst. Hear our prayers today and keep us open to your Word. May our faith issue forth in action, our love show itself in deeds, and our hope give us courage. We ask this through Christ our Lord. (Amen)

K1

Lord,
accept our offering
for this newly married couple, ___ and __.
By your love and providence, you have brought them together;
now bless them all the days of their married life.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

K2

Lord,
accept our gifts we offer you
on this happy day.
In your fatherly love
watch over and protect ___ and ___,
whom you have united in marriage.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

K3

Lord,
hear our prayers
and accept the gifts we offer for ___ and ____.
Today you have made them one in the sacrament of marriage.
May the mystery of Christ's unselfish love,
which we celebrate in this Eucharist,
increase their love for you and for each other.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

L1

Father, all-powerful and ever-living God,
we do well always and everywhere to give you thanks.
By this sacrament, your grace unites man and woman
in an unbreakable bond of love and peace.

You have designed the chaste love of husband and wife
for the increase both of the human family
and of your own family born in baptism.

You are the loving Father of the world of nature;
you are the loving Father of the new creation of grace.
In Christian marriage you bring together
the two orders of creation:
nature's gift of children enriches the world,
and your grace enriches also your Church.

Through Christ, the choirs of angels and all the saints
praise and worship your glory.
May our voices blend with theirs,
as we join in their unending hymn:

L2

Father, all-powerful and ever-living God,
we do well always and everywhere to give you thanks
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through him you entered into a new covenant with your people.
You restored man to grace in the saving mystery of redemption.
You gave him a share in the divine life
through his union with Christ.
You made him an heir of Christ's eternal glory.

This outpouring of love in the new covenant of grace
is symbolized in the marriage covenant
that seals the love of husband and wife
and reflects your divine plan of love.

And so, with the angels and all the saints in heaven,
we proclaim your glory
and join in their unending hymn of praise:

L3

Father, all-powerful and ever-living God,
we do well always and everywhere to give you thanks

You created man in love to share your divine life.
We see his high destiny in the love of husband and wife,
which bears the imprint of your own divine love.

Love is man's origin,
love is his constant calling,
love is his fulfillment in heaven.

The love of man and woman
is made holy in the sacrament of marriage,
and becomes the mirror of your everlasting love.

Through Christ, the choirs of angels and all the saints,
Praise and worship your glory.
May our voices blend with theirs
as we join in their unending hymn of praise:

M1

My dear friends, let us turn to the Lord and pray
that he will bless with his grace this woman (____)
now married in Christ to this man (____)
and that he will unite in love the couple,
he has joined in this holy bond.

Father, by your power you have made everything out of nothing.
In the beginning you created the universe
and made mankind in your own likeness.
You gave man the constant help of woman
so that man and woman should no longer be two,
but one flesh,
and you teach us that what you have united
may never be divided.

Father, you have made the union of man and wife,
so holy a mystery, that it symbolizes the marriage
of Christ and his Church.

Father, by your plan man and woman are united,
and married life has been established
as the one blessing that was not forfeited by original sin or washed away in the flood.

Look with love upon this woman, your daughter,
now joined to her husband in marriage.
She asks your blessing.
Give her the grace of love and peace.

May she always follow the example of the holy women
Whose praises are sung in the scriptures.

May her husband put his trust in her
and recognize that she is his equal
and the heir with him to the life of grace.
May he always honor her and love her,

as Christ loves his bride, the Church.

Father, keep them always true to your commandments.
Keep them faithful in marriage
and let them be living examples of Christian life.

Give them the strength, which comes from the gospel
so that they may be witnesses of Christ to others.
And, after a happy old age,
grant them fullness of life with the saints
in the kingdom of heaven.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.           (Amen)

M2

Let us pray to the Lord for ___ and ___ who come to God's altar at the beginning of their married life so that they may always be united in love for each other.

Holy Father, you created mankind in your own image and made man and woman to be joined as husband and wife
in union of body and heart
and so fulfill their mission in this world.

Father, to reveal the plan of your love,
You made the union of husband and wife
An image of the covenant between you and your people.

In the fulfillment of this sacrament
the marriage of Christian man and woman is the sign of the marriage between Christ and the Church.
Father, stretch out your hand, and bless ___ and ___.

Lord, grant that as they begin to live this sacrament,
they may share with each other the gifts of your love
and become one in heart and mind
as witnesses to your presence in their marriage.
Help them to create a home together.

Give your blessings to ___, your daughter
so that she may be a good wife (and mother),
caring for the home,
faithful in love for her husband, generous and kind.

Give your blessings to ___, your son,
So that he may be a faithful husband (and a good father).

Father, grant that as they come together to your table on earth, so they may one day have the joy of sharing your feast in heaven.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. (Amen)

M3

My dear friends, let us ask God
for his continued blessings upon this bridegroom and bride (or ___ and ___).

Holy Father, creator of the universe
maker of man and woman in your own likeness,
source of blessing for married life,
we humbly pray to you for this woman,
who today is united with her husband,
in this sacrament of marriage.

Make your fullest blessing come upon her and her husband
so that they may together rejoice in your gift of married love (and enrich your Church with their children).

Lord may they both praise you when they are happy
and turn to you in their sorrows.

May they be glad that you help them in their work
and know that you are with them in their needs.

May they pray to you in the community of the Church,
and be your witnesses in the world.

May they reach old age in the company of their friends,
and come at last to the kingdom of heaven.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.           (Amen).

N1

Lord,
in your love
you have given us this Eucharist
to unite us with one another and with you.

As you have made ___ and ___
one in this Sacrament of Marriage, (and in the sharing of the one bread and the one cup),
so now make them one in love for each other.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.           (Amen)

N2

Lord,
we who have shared the food of your table
pray for our friends, ___ and ___,
whom you have joined together in marriage.
Keep them close to you always.
May their love for each other
proclaim to all the world
their faith in you.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.           (Amen)

N3

Almighty God,
may the sacrifice we have offered
and the Eucharist we have shared strengthen the love of ____ and ____,
and give us all your fatherly aid.

We ask this through Christ Our Lord.           (Amen)
