Church Law requires that a child to be Baptized have at least one Catholic Godparent (who is a practicing Catholic; 16 years or older; received all of the Church's sacraments of initiation (including Confirmation); if married, they must be validly married in the Catholic Church; and someone who is willing and able to help the child and his/her parents or guardians develop and grow in the Catholic Faith. There must be at least one (1) godparent. In the case where there are two (2) godparents, one must be male and the other female. The maximum number of recordable godparents is two (2). A baptized non-Catholic Christian may not be a godparent, but may act as a witness. Non-baptized persons may not officially act as a godparent or witness to a baptism of a child in the Catholic Church.  Additionally, parents and godparents must participate in a baptismal preparation class or program at a Catholic Church; which is valid for a period of two years. If the Godparent(s) is unable to be physically present for the actual baptism ceremony, a proxy (stand-in) is permitted.
