

THE WAY TO INDIVIDUALLY MAKE THE ACT OF CONSECRATION TO ST MICHAEL, THE ARCHANGEL

This consecration should be made by those individuals whose Confession is up-to-date and who participate in Holy Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation.

As a visible sign of this consecration a blessed scapular or medal with the effigy of St. Michael may be used as a point of reference by the individual following their offering of the prayer of consecration of him or herself to St Michael, the Archangel.

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION

Oh, most noble prince of the angelic hierarchies, valorous warrior of Almighty God, and Zealous lover of His glory, terror of the rebellious angels, and love and delight of all the just ones, my beloved Archangel, Saint Michael, desiring to be numbered among your devoted servants, today, I offer and consecrate myself to you, and place myself, my family, and all I possess under your most powerful protection.

I ask you not to look at how little, I, as your servant, have to offer, being weak and sinful, but to gaze, rather, with favorable eye at the heartfelt affection with which this offering is made, and remember that if from this day onward, I am under your patronage, you must during all my life assist me, and procure for me the pardon of my offenses and sins, the grace to love with all my heart my God, my dear Savior Jesus, and my sweet Mother Mary, and obtain for me all the help necessary to arrive at my crown of glory.

Defend me always from my spiritual enemies, particularly in the last moments of my life. Come then, O glorious prince, and help me in my last struggle, and with your powerful weapon, cast far from me and into the abyss that proud angel, that one day you defeated in the celestial battle.

Saint Michael, defend us in our daily battle, so that we may come to glory in the last judgment.

Amen.
